Annual Giving's $211,058 Sets Another Record

Presbyterian College's 1973 Annual Giving produced a record $211,058 for an impressive 16 percent increase over the previous year.

This total from 1,972 contributors does not include other yearly sources such as church budget gifts and the South Carolina Foundation of Independent Colleges which would push the total for current operations to over $400,000.

The $211,058 was about 5 percent over the $200,000 goal for 1973 and compared to $181,100 raised by Annual Giving in 1972. The boards of trustees and alumni directors recorded 100 percent participation in setting the pace for this most successful operation. And PC's total alumni organization had 35 percent participation—more than double the national average of 17 percent among alumni of all colleges and universities.

New records were set in every bracket:

Alumni:	$105,014	1,340 gifts
Non-Alumni Parents:	$ 21,541	166 gifts
PC Associates:	$ 25,141	94 gifts
(non-alumni faculty, trustees, visitors)
Company Matching Gifts:	$ 11,300	58 gifts
Other Friends:	$ 48,058	314 gifts

The PC Annual Giving program raises funds primarily for student financial aid, faculty salary increases and departmental improvements. Among the major objectives with designated gifts, the Walter Johnson Club alumni athletic organization reached its $57,500 goal for athletic grants.

Fraternity Memorial Honors P. S. Bailey

The late Clinton industrialist P. S. Bailey was honored on March 3 when the PC chapter of Kappa Alpha social fraternity, to which he belonged as a student here, dedicated the main lounge of its new fraternity house to his memory.

The program featured talks by four outstanding KA alumni who were friends of Bailey: Dr. W. McLeod Frampton '34 of Orangeburg; Dr. Chapman Milling '23 of Columbia; E. Fleming Mason '30 of Summerton and Tom Addison '38 of Clinton.

Mrs. P. S. Bailey and daughter Emily, longtime benefactors of the College, were special guests.

P. S. Bailey, a 1926 graduate and former trustee who served as president of Clinton Mills (1948-58), maintained an active interest in Kappa Alpha throughout his lifetime. The memorial room named for him is the principal social area of the new house completed last summer as one of six making up PC's new fraternity court. Students, alumni and friends raised funds to underwrite a portion of the cost of these buildings.

Faculty Engaged in Major Self-Study

PC is engaged in another major self-study, a procedure required every ten years to maintain accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

The SACS manual states the purpose is "the improving of educational effectiveness in institutions of higher learning . . . to help institutions reassess their objectives, measure success in attaining objectives, explore ways and means by which educational efficiency may be improved, and prepare for the ever-increasing demands of society."

For the past year, PC faculty members have been studying every activity through committees assigned to these specific areas: history and purpose; educational program; faculty and research; library; physical plant; organization and administration; financial resources; admissions, aid and enrollment; students; and special activities.

After the study is completed later this year, a detailed report will be prepared. Then, next spring, a visiting committee of administrators and professors from other institutions will visit PC to review the report and examine the College. They may make further recommendations not included in the self-study.

Total '73 Gifts Top $1 Million Fifth Year

The $1.12 million in total gift support received from all sources during 1973 represented the fifth straight year PC contributions have exceeded the one-million-dollar figure.

Last year's report, led by alumni donations representing nearly one-third of the total, amounted to $1,123,235 from these four major categories:

Capital purposes — $717,870; Annual Giving — $211,058; Presbyterian Churches of South Carolina and Georgia—$152,915; and the South Carolina Foundation of Independent Colleges—$41,392.

The total gift support for the previous four years ran as follows: 1969—$1.27 million; 1970—$1.03 million; 1971—$1.02 million; 1972—$1.15 million.

Alumnus Doug Kiker of NBC News Heads Winter Assembly Programs

Doug Kiker '52 found he could, indeed, go home again in style when he delivered the 1974 Distinguished Alumni Lecture before an enthusiastic PC student assembly in early February.

The Washington news correspondent with the National Broadcasting Company drew extended applause for his articulate, balanced address on Watergate and then fielded a barrage of questions in the Twentieth Century Issues class which followed.

While retaining his reporter's objectivity, Kiker gave an incisive, first-hand insight into the Washington atmosphere and the ingredients which combined to cause the Watergate combustion.

A 1952 graduate of PC, Douglas Kiker has been with NBC since 1966, and is now in his second Washington assignment after three years as the Rome correspondent. He was part of NBC television's widely praised news team which covered the Democratic and Republican conventions in the fall of 1972. PC awarded him an honorary degree last June.

The Distinguished Alumni Lecture Series is sponsored by the PC Alumni Association to bring noted speakers before the student assembly. The Twentieth Century course, required of all sophomores during the winter term, is an interdisciplinary program which seeks to focus student thought on broad current problems and issues.

Some of the other cultural events of the winter term were:

Dr. Ariel E. Lugo, Assistant Secretary for Natural Resources, Puerto Rico, speaking on population;

The National Players in Tartuffe;

Addis and Crofut folk singers;
Whittemore and Lowe duo-pianists;
George Hauser of the American Committee on Africa;

The Cage presentation by San Quentin Prison parolees;

Alvin A. Achenbaum, former executive vice-president, J. Walter Thompson Co.;

Turnau Opera Players of New York;
The Rhenish Chamber Orchestra of Cologne;

Dr. James M. Yankovich, Michigan University academic dean;
Eglevsky Ballet Company.

First Summer Term Opens on June 10

Forty-eight courses in 15 departments, including 12 hours in post-graduate work in education and special education, will be offered in the 1974 summer school scheduled to open June 10.

The first term will extend from June 10 to July 13; and the second term, from July 15 to August 17. Students may attend either or both of the five-days-a-week sessions and receive a maximum of six hours credit for each term. Special attention is given to work toward teacher-certification.

Courses will be offered in art, biology, chemistry, economics, education, special education, English, history, mathematics, music, physical education, political science, psychology, religion and sociology.

Winter Term Enrolls 841

This winter term finds 841 full-time students attending PC—a student body composed of 514 men and 327 women.

It compares to the record 860 full-time students enrolled last fall for the start of the 1973-74 session. In the usual turnover between terms, 21 students completed work on their degrees, a few dropped out and others registered here for the first time.

The 13-week winter term will end on April 9. Then, after spring vacation, the short spring term will extend from April 17 through May 30.

Scholarships Awarded High School Seniors

Academic grants ranging up to $12,000 each for the four years of study have been awarded 26 high school seniors in the 1974 competition for Presbyterian College's prestigious Founder's and Alumni Scholarships.

The young scholars were selected from among 42 finalists for the four-year grants ranging from an honorary stipend to full scholarship, depending upon need. The 1974 recipients, composed of 12 men and 14 women from six states, include:

FOUNDER'S SCHOLARS — Lucy K. Graybill, Rhett H. Hasell and Gerald H. Preacher, Jr., all of Columbia; William E. Blanchard of Charleston; Thomas D. Folk of North Augusta; John T. Love of Piedmont; Pattie J. Anderson of Clarksville, Ga.; Harriett

A. DiGioia of Dalton, Ga.; Wyman S. Ferguson of Warner Robins, Ga.; Deborah E. Meeks of Perry, Ga.; Carol J. O'Dillon of Macon, Ga.; Lemuel R. Parr of Albany, Ga.; Karen C. Price of Gainesville, Ga.; and Louise H. Rauch of Cocoa, Fla.

ALUMNI SCHOLARS — Charlene L. VanMeter of Greenville; Judith L. Williamson of Union; Richard A. Blackmon of Sumter; Julia M. Bleakley of Columbia; Carol B. Ervin of Cheraw; Jarrell K. Greene of Jackson; Steve Erling Jordan of Fort Mill; Connie L. Lane of Allendale; Michael S. Beates of Alexandria, Va.; Paul Bolin, Jr., of Beulaville, N. C.; Teresa H. Roy of Marietta, Ga.; and Rebecca A. Lamar of Lubbock, Tex.

The 1973 Honor Roll

This 1973 Honor Roll lists the names of some 2,500 contributors to the Presbyterian College program last year. It is published in appreciation for the strong support given the College by alumni, parents and friends, by the churches of the supporting Synod of the Southeast, the various corporations and by foundations—all of whom share as underwriters in the progress of PC. Alumni and trustees again led the way. Former students gave more than one-fourth ($301,829) of the $1.12 million total contributed to all sources, and they reached 35 percent participation in Annual Giving. The board of trustees scored 100 percent as every member supported the program. Non-alumni parents of PC students also joined in record participation, while the gifts of 58 alumni were doubled by the matching gift plans of 30 different corporations.

It was the fifth straight million-dollar year for total PC gifts, and Annual Giving set new records in every category in achieving $211,058.

Southern-Ranked Amaya to Succeed Jim Shakespeare as Tennis Coach

Amaya

Shakespeare

Tennis Coach Jim Shakespeare, leaving in May after nine successful years here, will be replaced by his former player and PC's three-time tennis All-American George Amaya.

Shakespeare will become the year-round head tennis professional at Haddonwood Tennis Club (Deptford, N. J.), one of the top tennis-swimming-health clubs in the East, with indoor and outdoor facilities. A 1959 PC graduate who earned his master's degree as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow at Duke University, Shakespeare returned in 1965 as tennis coach and part-time English instructor. Since then, his teams have posted an overall 113-71-1 record and have finished in the top three nationally in NAIA rankings for the past five years. He was NAIA tennis coach of the year for 1973 and is the current president of the NAIA Tennis Coaches Association.

George Amaya, the best player Shakespeare produced at PC, is currently ranked sixth in the South in singles by the United States Lawn Tennis Association and, with brother Jim Amaya '71, is number one in doubles. George was the NAIA national singles champion while leading the PC team in 1971 and shared the national doubles crown in 1969 and 1971. During his four years of college play here (1968-71), he posted a 44-11 singles record against some of the top number one men in the country. He was recognized as a campus leader in being named to Blue Key and "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Entering service after earning his BS degree in 1971, George Amaya played number one for the Army team and traveled under Army sponsorship giving clinics in clubs and high schools. He was married to the former Mary Adair of Clinton in January and is temporarily holding the tennis professional job at the Haddonwood Club which Shakespeare will take over on a full-time basis in May. Then, Amaya will begin his schedule of serving six months, May through October, as the tennis professional at Buck

Hill Falls (Pa.) Tennis Club, followed by six months (November-April) at Presbyterian College. His PC duties will include recruiting and coaching the tennis team, some student instruction and limited activity in some other areas of the sports program.

Meanwhile, Jim Shakespeare still has the current season for directing the Blue Hose. He faces another tough schedule with a young, inexperienced team, so his 1974 record may suffer in comparison. Top prospects are: sophomore Mike Faya of Catonsville, Md.; junior T. K. Farley of Danville, Va.; and freshmen Carlos Behar and Antonio Angel of Bogota, Colombia, where they were national junior doubles champions.

Basketeers Undeclared at Home

Old LeRoy Springs Gymnasium looked beautiful to the 1973-74 basketball team, which won every single one of its 11 home games there and produced the most colorful cage season in years.

The final record stood at 16 wins and 12 losses. Play within NAIA District 6 was 11-7, just short of the fourth-place finish needed to make the playoffs, but it was a good start for new Coach Larry Burch.

Versatile George Hester led PC's fast-break style of play and made All-District honors. This 6-2 junior from Morehead City, N. C., set the team pace both in scoring with a 16.7 per-game average and in assists with his 148 total. Senior co-captains Dennis Moon of Columbia and Terry Dover of Union Point, Ga., produced scoring averages of 16 points and 13.9 respectively. Other scorers, all of whom will return next year, include: Marion Miller of Pacolet, 9-point average; Mike Silver of Old Fort, N. C., 8; Randy Hyde of Kannapolis, N. C., 8; Denny Griffin of Brevard, N. C., 5.1; and Alvin Sewell of Forsyth, Ga., 4.9.

Synod of Southeast Women to Hold Seminar at PC

Presbyterian women of Georgia and South Carolina will come to the PC campus next June 17-20 for the first annual Women's Seminar of the Synod of the Southeast.

This period of religious instruction replaces the South Carolina Synodical Training School held each year at PC before the churches of the two states recently united into a single synod. During these years, from 1954 through the final session last summer, thousands of women participated in the program.

Past success prompted the decision to continue the program as a seminar for the enlarged Synod of the Southeast. As in the past, women will reside in a PC dormitory and utilize other campus facilities for the four-day session. Several hundred are expected to attend, either as resident or commuting participants.

They will be instructed by a visiting faculty in these classes: Dr. J. McDowell Richards, first moderator of the Synod of the Southeast, "Affirmations of the Apostles'

Creed;" Dr. Thomas Horton, Jr., executive-secretary of Charleston Presbytery, "Restructuring of Presbyteries and Synods—What? How? Why?;" Vernol R. Jansen, Jr., general secretary of the Synod of North Carolina, "Program Areas of Our Church;" Mrs. John W. McQueen, teacher-leader in Presbyterian Church US, "Disciplines of the Christian Life;" and Mrs. Laura Logan, former missionary to Japan now serving as a staff associate of the International Mission, G.E.B., in Atlanta, "Our International Mission as a Church."

The daily Platform Bible Hour on "Studies in Matthew" will be led by Dr. Marc C. Weersing, president of PC.

Mrs. W. R. Josey of Manning, an early director of the S. C. Synodical Training School, serves as director of this first Women's Seminar. The associate directors are Mrs. Thomas O. Cox of Climax, Ga., and Mrs. F. D. Rogers, Jr., of Bennettsville, S. C. The treasurer is Mrs. M. C. Cottingham of Manning, S. C. (Box 519), to whom requests for applications may be addressed.

Study Abroad: Students travel to tropics, Europe, Middle East for special study during seven-week spring term.

Study abroad during Presbyterian College's short spring term (April 17 - May 30) this year will carry students to Puerto Rico in biology, to Europe in fine arts and to the Holy Land in religion. It will be the second spring for all three projects, each of which provides six hours of academic credit.

The tropical ecology of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands will be studied on the spot under the direction of Biology Chairman James D. Stidham and Associate Professor Fred C. James. After two weeks of on-campus lectures and labs for background purposes, the group will fly to Puerto Rico on May 6 for 24 days in the study of marine and terrestrial floras and faunas with respect to ecological relationships. Both there and during a short trip to the Virgin Islands attention will be given to the montane rain forest (jungle), elfin cloud forest, savanna, tropical desert, mangrove swamp, coral reefs, estuaries, radiation experimental station and tropical plantations.

European Art-Music Study Tour will follow two weeks of orientation on campus with six days in the art and music centers of New York City and then 22 days among the art museums and concert halls of Europe. The European itinerary will begin in Amsterdam, then move through Germany (Cologne, Bonn and Munich) to Austria's Salzburg and Vienna, on to Italy for stops at Venice, Florence and Rome, and finally three days in Paris. Museums, galleries and art and music landmarks will be studied in each city, and the group will attend ten concerts of varying kinds. Fine arts Chairman Charles T. Gaines will handle the campus orientation in music and will be in charge of the European portion of the tour. Art Instructor James Brinson will prepare the students in art and will accompany the group to New York.

The Bible Lands Study-Tour is scheduled for May 6-27 after three weeks of preparation on campus. The trip will be primarily concerned with Israel but will include several days in Rome, Asia Minor and Switzerland. It is under the direction of Religion Professor Joseph M. Gettys, who will hold nightly sessions to review and interpret each day's activities.
